

RELEVANT CHALLENGES IN THE NORWEGIAN TRAUMA SYSTEM 2019

HØSTMØTET TRAUME 21. OKTOBER

STED: MEET ULLEVAAL, ULLEVÅL STADION

09.00-10.30 Penetrating Injuries – you can do it!

- Approach to penetrating torso trauma – keep it simple!
- Penetrating neck injuries
- CT in penetrating trauma, useful or just wasting time
- Gunshot torso – my tricks to get me out of trouble
- Case discussions

Tarek Razek
Steve Moeng
Tarek Razek
Steve Moeng

10.30-11.00 Coffee

11.00-12.30 Resuscitation of the critically injured – pre- and in-hospital algorithms and why

- Prehospital use of blood components and TXA
- Anything new from the transfusion committee?
- The evidence for VHA - What did iTACTIC teach us?
- SHINE and the role of plasma after haemostasis
- Panel discussion

Halvard Stave
Anders Holtan
Kjersti Baksaas-Aasen
Per Johansson

12.30-13.30 Lunch

13.30-15.00 The difficult blunt trauma patient – when and how to operate and when to transfer

- Splenic injuries with case discussion
- Seatbelt injuries with case discussion
- REBOA – useful anywhere in Norway?
- Pelvic injuries with case discussion

Jorunn Skattum
Elin Thorsen
Joakim Jørgensen
Tina Gaarder

15.00-15.30 Coffee

15.30-17.00 System, Research, Legal issues, Media and patient Rights

- Trauma system update
- National trauma research – where are we going?
- Patient reactions to trauma and immediate needs
- Patient privacy vs police and media interest – an update
- Panel discussion

Tone Slåke
Torben Wisborg
Rachel Jørgensen
Pål Aksel Næss